

Conference on child rights in tea plantations

GUWAHATI, Nov 12: The National Law University, Assam, in collaboration with the State Department of Labour and Employment, is organising a national conference on protection of child rights in tea plantations of India with a particular reference to implementation of the Plantation Labour Act, 1951 on November 14 and 15 at the Assam Administrative Staff College, Khanapara.

The two-day conference is being supported by UNICEF Office for Assam and Ethical Tea Partnership (ETP), according to a press release.